ABOUT STOREBRAND

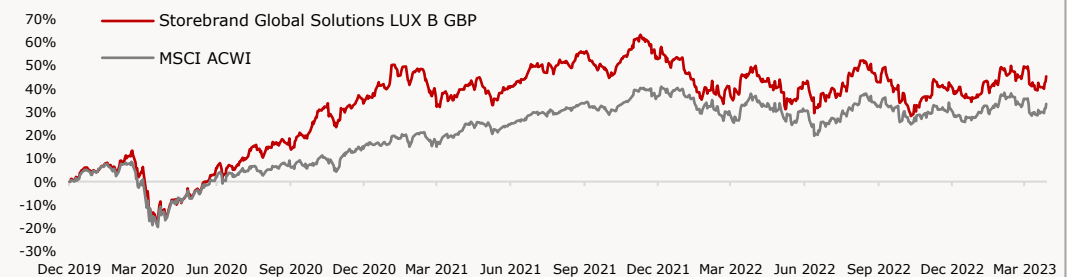

Storebrand Asset Management is Norway's largest private asset manager and a specialist in sustainable investing. Sustainability is integral to Storebrand's business and our ESG analysis, which aligns with the UN's Sustainability Development Goals, is fully integrated into the investment processes for all assets under management. Our long-term vision for the year 2050 is a world where nine billion people live well, within the earth's natural limits, and we believe that the companies which contribute to solving society's problems in a sustainable way will also be the most profitable in the long run.

INVESTMENT COMMENTARY

Storebrand Global Solutions is an actively managed global equity portfolio investing in sustainable impact companies. The strategy is fossil-free and seeks to generate alpha by identifying businesses from developed and emerging markets that provide solutions to help achieve the UN's Sustainable Development Goals. The portfolio is centred on four complimentary investment themes; renewable energy, smart cities, circular economy and equal opportunities.

- Of the four portfolio themes, equal opportunities was the best performer in the first quarter, followed by smart cities and renewable energy.
- Enphase delivered solid results ahead of expectations, underpinning growth and confirming a positive outlook for 2023 – the company was more positive on opportunities within Europe than the US market. Share price performance has lagged peers, despite the positive results and outlook.
- SolarEdge delivered strong results, topping analyst estimates, and had a more positive market response. Improving margins, growth and a solid balance sheet all contributed to the impressive performance. Despite market volatility, the company remains in positive territory for the year-to-date.
- While the renewable segment continues to be volatile, it is important to note that state level conditions continue to provide tailwinds. At the very end of March, the EU reached a provisional deal on higher renewable energy targets, increasing renewable energy share from 32% to 42.5%.
- While this is important in order to accelerate the pace of transition, there were other aspects that also shone through, including targets for buildings and the acceleration of permit processes for renewable energy projects. It is difficult to see how the current pace can be increased without addressing the fact that it can take 10-12 years of project development in the UK and Spain to set up offshore and onshore wind projects. Only a fraction of this time is spent on construction and as there is a growing need for more energy, the focus is on reducing unnecessary obstructions to a green transition.

Historical returns are no guarantee for future returns. Future returns will depend, inter alia, on market developments, the fund manager's skill, the fund's risk profile and management fees. The return may become negative as a result of negative price developments. There is a risk associated with investing in the fund due to market movements, currency developments, interest rate levels, economic, sector and company-specific conditions.

RISK PROFILE

We have classified this product as 5 out of 7, which is a medium-high risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-high level. Other risks not included in the summary risk indicator but materially relevant: Event risk, liquidity risk, operational risk, counterparty risk, derivatives risk. Be aware of currency risk. You will receive payments in a different currency, so the final return you will get depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above. This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.
