

Report of income for UK tax purposes

The class of shares listed below are registered with HM Revenue & Customs in the UK as "reporting funds". As such, the funds are required to make reports of income to the investors. As an investor in one of the below share classes, there may be a requirement for you to pay tax as though you had actually received a distribution from the fund.

The following Storebrand SICAV sub-fund has reporting status:

Storebrand Global ESG PLUS LUX

If you are not subject to UK taxation, you may ignore this notice. If you are subject to UK taxation (unless you are a non-domiciled individual paying tax on the remittance basis), you will be required to pay tax on the share of income reported to you in this notice. If you are uncertain you should seek advice from your tax advisor.

For UK tax purposes, you are treated as receiving income on the "Fund distribution date" in (d) below. You should therefore include this income in your tax return for the tax year which includes that date.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at 31 December 2021.

The amount of income treated as received by you will be the "Excess" reported in (b) below, multiplied by the number of shares you held at.

The table below comprises the report of income as required for UK purposes, with the columns having the following meanings:
